Get your game on and help tackle hunger February 5!

Sunday, February 5, is Super Bowl XLVI (the NY Giants vs. New England Patriots). Before the big game, our church will host our own S-O-U-P-E-R Bowl (of Caring).

The Souper Bowl of Caring is a national grassroots, faith-based crusade against hunger and poverty. Here in Commerce, we will hold a Potluck Luncheon following the 10:50 am worship service.

Donations will be collected in the soup pot. Last year, we brought in $628 to support the local food assistance programs of the Commerce Alliance of Ministry! Let's see what we can raise this time! What is collected will again stay in Commerce to help fight hunger through the Alliance.

The Details

When: Sunday, February 5, at noon

What to bring: Your favorite soup, stew, salad, bread, or dessert

What to wear: Dress casual or show your team spirit

To learn more about this national effort, visit www.superbowl.org.

Connect - Grow - Serve

Our mission statement here at FUMC-C is "to make disciples for Jesus Christ by connecting, growing, and serving." By connecting with others who come through our doors, we hope to help them grow into discipleship, and to reach out into the community by serving others in the name of Jesus Christ.

Our leadership team structure and "way of doing things" are built around this mission statement. In the past, we had three separate teams - Connect, Grow, and Serve - with three chairs. But what we have found is that these teams are so interrelated that they could be more effective if they operated as one.

So starting in 2012, we have combined these teams into one C(onnect) - G(row) - S(erve) core team. This team is tasked with discerning connect, grow, and serve ministry opportunities and determining ways to carry out those ministries and projects by involving others within our congregation and community. Core team members include Teresa Heatherly, Jamie Moore, Ladonna Patterson, Angela Roberts, Julia Robinson, and Carolyn Trezevant.

This C-G-S core team is not a closed group, however. Interested volunteers (and they don't have to be members of FUMC-C) may plug into ministry as passion and time allow. All C-G-S meetings are open - the sharing of ministry possibilities is desired and strongly encouraged!

The next C-G-S meeting is Sunday, February 12, at noon in the Family Ministry Center. Our focus will be Lenten season planning as well as hospitality for newcomers who walk through our doors.

If you have any questions, please speak with any C-G-S member, Pastor Valarie, or Pastor Marc.

Dear FUMC Friends:

By the time you read this newsletter, the beginning of Lent will be a quick three weeks away. On February 22nd, we will mark Ash Wednesday with a worship service that will launch the season for us. The 40-day period that precedes Easter (not including Sundays, which are always feast days in the Christian calendar) beckon as an opportunity for increased attention to spiritual discipline and preparation for the journey to Golgotha and, beyond that, the empty tomb of Easter.

One of the first times I learned about any type of spiritual discipline (being raised in a denomination that didn't value spiritual discipline as such) was in elementary school. Fish was always served on Fridays in the school cafeteria. I never knew why we had "Fish Fridays" until a Catholic classmate told me that many Catholics abstain from eating meat on Fridays throughout the year in devotional remembrance of Good Friday. When she told me that, I wondered, "So what do they do around Easter? Not eat at all?" (The term Lent wasn't in my vocabulary until I was in my 20's).

Lenten practice for United Methodists can vary widely – from no practice at all to fasting from all foods on Fridays. Some years ago, a church member in her late 70's shared (in a rather embarrassed way) that her Lenten practice that year was giving up beer and watermelon. She seemed genuinely distressed by the 40 days that stretched before her without two of her favorite consumables.

What is interesting is that the practice of fasting is gaining increased attention, especially as we look around and see so many who live day-to-day without enough food. It seems our culture here in the United States is stretched between two poles: those who don't have access to healthy foods, and those who can afford fresh, healthy food (and pay top dollar for it). The foods traditionally eaten by the poor – vegetables grown in a garden plot, poultry and dairy raised on a small family farm, fresh fruits from a fruit tree or two in the front yard – are now only affordable, by and large, by those who have the means to pay for them (noticed the price of a bunch of organic kale lately? or a dozen eggs from a local farm?). And the foods the poor can afford (if they can afford food at all) are mass-produced, calorie-dense, and sorely lacking in nutritive value.

Add to this the issue of over-consumption. Advertisers do a very good job at ferreting out what we desire, and to some extent, determine what we should desire. They then create very compelling reasons for us to buy more and more. And it seems that the more we can buy, the hungrier we are.

What if we gave ourselves the gift of a fast, during which we lessen consumption – whether it be from certain foods, products, or media? What if we cleaned out some stuff – both internally and externally – and offered some freed-up space for the Holy Spirit to work on our seemingly-insatiable desires? What if we participated in a practice that would help us realize our deep hunger for God?

This Lent, we will be offering a study and spiritual discipline, Chris Seay's A Place At the Table, that we can all participate in to help make space at the table for all God's children. It is up to each individual to shape that fast or practice: be it a dietary change, taking on a practice, or cleaning out stuff. As a community of faith, we are stronger together. Won't you join us so that we may make room at the table for all, and make room in our hearts for God?

God's deep peace to you,
Valarie

Lent 2012: "A Hunger For God"

The Lenten season is a time for reflecting on Jesus' call for us to be disciples and make disciples. Make your Lenten practice more meaningful this year by participating in our Lenten opportunities as fully as possible. Prayerfully consider preparing yourself for the journey to the Cross:

Through special worship services

Ash Wednesday worship with imposition of ashes, February 22, at 6:30pm in the Sanctuary

Maundy Thursday worship with communion, Thursday, April 5, at 6:30pm in the Sanctuary

Good Friday service of Tenebrae, Friday, April 6, at 6:30pm in the Sanctuary

Worship each Sunday featuring sermons on "our hunger for God" and special seasonal music

Through study

We invite you to use A Place at the Table, by Chris Seay, for your Lenten devotional. The author challenges us to enter into solidarity with our fellow children of God who are hungry through fasting and daily meditations. Copies of the book are available in the church office for $12 each, or you may download the Kindle version from Amazon.com for $9.

Through spiritual disciplines and prayer

Consider fasting as a Lenten spiritual discipline, patterning your fast after the diets of those in parts of the world for which you have concern. For instance, one may fast in solidarity with the poor of Latin America, limiting your diet six days per week to rice, beans, tortillas, and vegetables. Other patterns for fasting are possible such as limiting technology, incorporating a daily prayer walk, or shopping within a budget of a family on food stamps. The important thing is joining one's practice to one's concern and prayer for others.

Through small groups

Pastor Valarie, Pastor Marc, and Teresa Heatherly will lead discussion groups that will be available at different times during the weeks of Lent using the DVD that accompanies A Place At the Table. These small groups will offer support and encouragement to those participating in a Lenten fast.

Through generous giving

You may find that you save money during your Lenten fast. What if you gave the money you save to FUMC's Lenten mission offering? More information will be forthcoming about FUMC's Lenten offering.

The Holy Spirit has a unique way of speaking to us when we stop long enough to truly listen.

—From A Place At the Table

UMW will meet Tuesday, February 21st at 10:00am. Our speaker will be Ruth Ann White. Our February project is: Food Pantry items. All women are invited to join us!

UMW

We will begin our Socks and Undies collection drive. We need:

- Sizes 4T—8

Drivers Needed ASAP for Manner Movers

Manna Movers urgently needs volunteers to deliver boxes of food received from the North Texas Food Bank to homebound Commerce residents in need. These recipients are people who either have no transportation to the Commerce Food Distribution held bi-monthly at the Word of Life Family Church or are in poor health.

- Time Commitment: Approximately 1 hour per distribution day
- How It Works: Food pickup is on 1st, 3rd, & 5th Wednesdays at 11:30am in the rear of the Word of Life Family Church located north of Commerce Hardware Store. Volunteers load your vehicle with boxes of food for the 6 to 8 clients that you serve. You are on your way without ever having to get out of your car.
- Whom to Contact: Call Julie Gentle at 903.468.2679 or e-mail her at juliegentle62@yahoo.com.

Reading the Bible Daily

As you seek to grow closer to God through daily prayer and Bible study, you may have your own favorite daily readings. If not, you will find Scriptures for each day listed below. We hope you'll read daily and ask yourself: "How will I be different today because of what I just read?" Some other questions you might ask are: What does this text say about who God is?" "What does this text say about who I am/ who we are as human beings?" "What does this text say about our relationship with God?" You may want to reflect on paper with a journal or note pad. We hope this will become a part of your daily prayer time.
